

2018 LEARNER SURVEY: SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

More than 398,000+ learners agree that LRN's high-quality courses provide engaging experiences that effectively educate learners, relate to real-life situations, and ultimately result in positive behavioral change

95% of learners rated the quality of the learning experience good to excellent.

82% of learners said they would act differently as a result of the learning experience.

95% of learners believed they had a better understanding of the subject because of the learning experience.

96% of learners said they would be able to apply the learning to real-life situations if necessary.

94% of learners said the learning experience provided the necessary guidance to deliver on their company's mission and purpose.

90% of learners said that learning experience would influence how they approach a work situation in the future.

95% of learners said the learning experience helped them better understand their company's values.

To find out more about our latest course offerings or innovative learner formats, please contact us at 1-800-598-2809.

END OF COURSE
SURVEY DATA 2018